

Local and Personal

C. C. Davidson, has gone to Oklahoma on business.

The wind put the show out of business this evening.

James Bond of Quay, was in town Thursday.

F. L. Weber, the subscription master for the El Herald, was here Thursday.

R. P. Donohoe made a business trip to Liberal, Kansas.

H. U. Hellum has gone to Kansas, where he will marry Miss Kittridge.

M. D. Goldenberg is at Sunnyside this week, looking after his lands over there.

W. F. Kelsay and daughter were in town Thursday. Trading and incidentally to take in the shows.

C. A. McKee and Charles L. McKee, of Clarendon, Texas, are at the Glenrock. They want homesteads.

John Briscoe and Daniel Russell were in town from the Briscoe ranches, Thursday, attending to business matters and incidentally to see the shows.

Mrs. Kielhorn was thrown from a wagon Monday and had an arm broken. She is reported resting very well.

Messes Burton and White, of San Jon east of Revuelto, were in town for lumber Thursday. They are improving homes out there.

County Surveyor Teo D. Martinez is kept busy lately locating homesteaders at different places in the county.

James L. Edwards, Lynchburg, Va. a sheep buyer is in town a guest of the Glenrock.

C. M. Shepard and D. C. Seay, of Prairie Grove, Ark. are at the Glenrock. They want Quay county lands.

Capt. P. W. Culberson returned from Birmingham, Ala. Thursday he went out to his ranch at Puerto, Friday morning.

S. C. Campbell says business is good. The other fellows are as busy as Massachusetts Cranberry merchants—too busy to talk.

Forty Hombres came in on Thirty from El Paso Wednesday, and went out on the Dawson to work.

Engineer Ford came up from the Main Line Wednesday and went out on the Dawson for a few days' visit.

R. A. Barnes and family, and W. C. Khen, registering Lincoln, Ark., are at the Plaza. They want homesteads.

J. W. Atkinson sold lots No. 11, 12 and 13 in block 10, Russell addition, this week, to E. Langston, consideration $135.00.

W. S. Wingrove, the popular fireman, has gone to Kansas to get married. He will make his future home in Tucumcari.

J. R. Rowland, of Pilot Mountain, N. C. is stopping at the Plaza. He is a printer, holding down a case at this office.

The four road crews on the Dawson are kept busy now-a-days and fifty to seventy-five loads are being delivered here every day.

J. T. Keogh, representing Herbert, Spencer, Bartlett, Hardware Company, of St. Louis, was a business visitor, Thursday.

District Attorney M. C. Mechem returned from the U. S. Court at Mamogordo, Sunday. He had been sick while there, but is now very much improved.

Hon. M. Rudolph, County of Schools, spent Monday in town attending to business matters. He informs us that it has been difficult to secure teachers this year.

M. A. Thomas, a funeral director and embalmer of Dalhart, was here yesterday to move the remains of Edward V. Johnson to Ft. Worth for burial. Mr. Thomas tells us that the dead man has a wife and two children in Dalhart, but his parents live in Ft. Worth, Texas, where the remains will be laid to rest in the family plot.

F. L. May, representing King Coal Company, Trinidad, is at the Plaza.

R. E. Christian, Ft. Chisler, Tex. is at the Plaza. He may locate here.

D. N. Williams, one of our prominent ranchmen, is at the Plaza.

S. C. Pandolfo and wife are here from El Paso for a short visit.

Luciano Garcia of Endes, and family, were show visitors, Thursday.

C. W. Hutchinson, with Gross, Kelly & Company at Logan, was a business visitor, Sunday.

Mr. McDermott, the Rock Island Eating House man, was in town a day or two the first of the week.

G. S. Lee, a ranchman of this county and his brother, a Texas ranchman, were in Tucumcari several days this week.

Our repairers, Mason and Alon, went to Roy Tuesday to repair a damaged car at that place. They returned Wednesday.

Three cars of beef cattle were loaded at Roy Monday. They were delivered to the C. & R. L. at this place Monday night.

T. E. Byrd, the horse ranchman, brought his horses and cattle in off the ranges this week and put them to pasture west of town.

Juan D. Ortega, of Montoya, and his family were in town, Thursday, to see the shows.

M. C. Gunn, Folsom, with the Mutual Life Insurance Company, spent several days in the city.

J. M. Savage of Agua Caliente, was in town for supplies. He is a prominent sheepman of that place.

L. Archuleta and Mike Miller, of Roy, guests M. B. Fowler, were in town Tuesday and Wednesday. They are business men of that place.

Roy and Mrs. Holguth desire to express their thanks for the pleasant surprise and kindly remembrance of friends Monday night.

Florencio Martinez, the stockman and merchant of Quay, and his family came in Thursday.

Claud Berry's little boy five years old fell from a chair Tuesday, and broke his arm and dislocated his shoulder.

Mr. Dalby was hurt in a run-a-way Wednesday. His injuries are in his back and chest.

L. E. Taylor has ordered a three horse power motor for the pump at the Street well.

Edward P. Nelson, president of the Missouri State Life Insurance Company, was a business visitor here Thursday. He returned to St. Louis, Thursday night.

Jose Tolaya and daughter, Marie, were in town from Revuelto, Thursday, visiting the family of Francisco Gutierrez, their relatives and to see the big shows. Mr. Tolaya is a stockman at Revuelto.

J. H. Hughes who returned a few days ago from Texas, was in town Thursday, and bought some horse flesh while in to draw the plow out on the farm.

Rev. Junius Wilkins, the Christian Church Evangelist minister, who opened a revival meeting here last Sunday night, is reported very sick. He took a heavy cold last Sunday and has been confined to his bed ever since.

W. A. Dodson, Vernon, Texas, and J. W. Dodson, Dalhart, a fireman on the Rock Island, brothers of our fellow townsmen, E. L. and R. A. Dodson, were visiting their brothers here this week.

Wm. Parry and wife came in Saturday from Amarillo. They intend to locate in Tucumcari. Mr. Parry has been in business as a cabinet maker during the past two years, but recently closed out there and will likely, a little later, open a business of some sort here.

Christmas

At

The M. B. Goldenberg Co's BIG STORE!

May Mean in Your List of Selections

For Father: A pocket-knife or pair of comfortable gloves.

For Mother: A black silk waist or soft knitted shawl.

For Brother Henry: A pair of fine suspenders or China silk muffler.

For Sister Alice: An embroidered handkerchief or lace collar.

For Little Irene: One of those pretty dressed dolls.

For Aunt Anna--in Texas: A decorated China cake plate or salad bowl.

For Uncle Joshua, in York State: Three silk initial suberba handkerchiefs for $1.00.

For Your Wife: Something in the way of cut-glass, Mexican drawn work, or Austrian China--nothing is too good for her, you know.

For Your Husband: Half dozen each, black, and gray, half hose.

For The Baby: A cream white bear skin plush hood, or pair of dainty soft sole Violet or Brownie shoes.

For Susan's Best Young Man: A pair of Monkey skin slippers, $2.25.

For 'That Nice Miss Smith': A pair kid gloves or a fine album with your picture placed well to the front.

For Your Friends in General: Choice from a great variety of articles, both pretty and useful, and at the moderate prices which enable you to give as liberally as you desire.

For Yourself: The pleasure of giving, of getting good value for your money, and, do not forget it, a fine collection of the prize and premium tickets, given with all cash purchases at

The M. B. Goldenberg Co.